PRACTICES Finance, Asset-Based Lending, Leveraged Financings, Fund Finance, Private Credit Finance

Aleksandra Kopec is a partner in the Finance Practice Group in Haynes Boone's Charlotte office.

Her practice focuses on representing lenders and borrowers in a variety of finance transactions, including leveraged finance, capital call facilities, NAV facilities and other fund finance products. Aleks' extensive experience in the financial markets in New York and Charlotte provides clients with uniquely sophisticated advice on their specific lending needs and products. She is often retained to provide in-depth representation with respect to lending policies and best practices in addition to transactional work and clients value her commitment to the growth of their business. Aleks' comprehensive knowledge of the fund finance industry and the legal and business issues relating to fund finance products make her an invaluable advisor in the field.

Aleks is the Chair of the Board of Alexander Children's Foundation, leading the support for the largest provider of mental health services for children in the state of North Carolina. She is also an active champion of human trafficking survivors, heading up several pro bono matters for such survivors at any given time.
