RELATED PRACTICES Fund Finance

Louise Brownless is an associate in the Fund Finance Practice Group in Haynes Boone's London office.

Louise negotiates a range of trading documentation, including ISDA master agreements, repurchase agreements and clearing agreements. She has experience in short-selling notifications, ISDA protocol adherence and US regulatory filings. She has also supported fund launches and terminations.

Her wider financial services experience includes advising on material nonpublic information assessments, trading restrictions and managing confidential lists. Louise has worked on KYC and anti-money laundering reviews and change of control regulatory applications.

Before joining Haynes Boone, Louise worked at a global investment bank and in-house at a quantitative hedge fund.
