

Ron Borys

Managing Director

Financial Professional Liability

Ron Borys is a Managing Director for Crystal & Company's Financial Institutions Group (FIG). He is responsible for program design, brokerage, and risk consultative services focusing on the financial institution industry sector. Coverage expertise includes directors and officers liability, errors and omissions, employment practices liability, fiduciary liability and fidelity. He also has extensive experience working with global multinational clients placing local policies in foreign jurisdictions.

Ron has worked as a broker serving clients in the financial services insurance industry for his entire 13 year career. Prior to joining the Crystal & Company, Ron worked at Marsh for four years as their Financial Institution Advisory Team Leader. Prior to Marsh, Ron worked at Aon for seven years as a Team Leader and key contributor to their Mutual Fund and Asset Management Practice. Ron has extensive experience working with large complex financial institutions including Mutual Funds and Investment Advisors, Hedge Funds, Real Estate Funds, Investment Banks, Commercial Banks, Venture Capital and Private Equity Firms.

Ron received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Business from the University of Delaware, double majoring in Finance and Management.