

HOUSTON

811 Main, Suite 2800
Houston, TX 77002
(m) (832) 428-7406
(e) mcole@usdg.com
(w) www.usdg.com

MARK COLE

Co-General Counsel and Secretary of USD Group LLC

www.cmc.com

Mark Cole is the Co-General Counsel and Secretary of USD Group LLC, the parent of USD Partners LP (NYSE: USDP), a publicly traded master limited partnership, formed in 2014 to acquire, develop and operate energy-related logistics assets, including rail terminals and other midstream infrastructure. Mr. Cole has been with USD since November 2001. Previously, he was an associate attorney at Bracewell in Houston for five years. Mr. Cole has law degrees from Notre Dame Law School (J.D., cum laude) and the University of Houston Law Center (LL.M. in international economic law), and has just begun studying for an MBA in Project Management through LSU Shreveport. He has various professional certifications from the International Risk Management Institute and Lloyd's Maritime Academy. He received his BA in English and political science from Baylor University and also has a Ph.D. in the history of ideas and two seminary degrees. Mr. Cole has served on the board of many charitable organizations and ministries and is a county-wide elected official in Montgomery County, Texas, serving as Vice Chairman of the board of the Montgomery County Hospital District.