

Ms. Eagan is a Director of Tachyus, a privately held Silicon Valley startup company creating technology to optimize energy production for the oil and gas industry and enable producers to make data-driven decisions that maximize asset value.

Ms. Eagan's experience includes 30 years with Royal Dutch Shell in the U.S., The Netherlands, and London. During this period, she served in various roles including VP Finance for Global Gas and Power, VP Finance for Commercial America and Chief Financial Officer in the USA.

After retiring from Shell in 2005, Ms. Eagan was employed by Delta Hydrocarbons B.V. as CFO until 2009. In January 2012, she joined the board of directors of the Marine Spill Response Corporation, the largest standby oil spill and emergency response company in the United States. Ms. Eagan also served on the board of directors for BPZ Energy.

From 2012 to 2016, Ms Eagan was Chief Operating Officer for the Ayn Rand Institute.

Ms. Eagan holds a BS in Accounting from the University of New Orleans, an MBA from the University of Houston, and law degree from the South Texas College of Law.