Haynes and Boone attorneys have extensive experience in enforcement issues relating to the prosecution of international cartels as well as the defense of private treble damage litigation. We have been actively involved in major international cartel investigations in a variety of industries including air cargo, air freight, vitamins, and food additives and flavor enhancements.

Our team has the experience and capability to help you successfully navigate all aspects of the criminal process. We are experienced in conducting internal investigations to evaluate potential misconduct, assessing corporate and individual leniency issues, negotiations with federal, state and international competition authorities, and designing and implementing a national or international cartel litigation defense strategy.
