

Surety

Practices and Industries

PRIMARY CONTACTS

Haynes Boone attorneys provide customized strategies for navigating the complex issues associated with sureties and commercial construction enterprises. We represent and advocate client interests in litigation, arbitration, and mediation. Our lawyers have successfully resolved performance and payment bond claims and indemnification and subrogation matters through trial and settlement before state and federal courts throughout the United States, administrative agencies, and arbitration panels. Our experience includes:

- Performance and payment bond claim investigation, analysis, response, and litigation
- Meetings with bond principals, obliges, and indemnitors
- Enforcement of indemnity rights and prosecution of indemnity actions
- Contesting bond principals' default termination and pursuit of principals' affirmative claims
- Protection of surety rights in bankruptcy proceedings and receiverships
- Negotiation, drafting, and management of takeover, tender, and completion arrangements
- Enforcement of subrogation rights and prosecution of subrogation actions
- Drafting of bond and indemnification documents
- Negotiation and drafting of financing arrangements
- Monitoring of tender arrangements
- Representation in surety claims