Haynes Boone attorneys assist companies attempting to comply with Buy American Act, “Hire American” regulations, and other domestic preference rules applicable to federal procurements. Our attorneys possess comprehensive knowledge of domestic preference compliance requirements and appropriate waivers and exceptions for procurements or grants for the purchase of U.S. products or services.

In addition, Haynes Boone attorneys advise clients on all source and domestic preference rules applicable to government contractors, including the Berry Amendment and Trade Agreements Act (TAA).

Our Government Contracts practice group frequently performs compliance assessments for clients that are required to meet Buy American Act, “Hire American,” and other domestic preference rules.
