The Restructuring Group has substantial experience representing traditional financial institutions in syndicated credits, club deals, and single-bank loans. In these credits, we routinely represent banks in their various lender capacities, including administrative agent, syndicate member, steering committee member, participant bank, and treasury management bank. In addition to our traditional bank representations, we also have substantial experience representing second lien lenders, asset-based lenders, mezzanine lenders, private equity lenders, bondholders, National Portfolio, CMBS and CDO loan servicers, indenture trustees, and virtually all other types of lenders and secured creditors. In all of these representations, our experience and deep bench of dedicated restructuring lawyers allows us to lead clients through complex issues concerning cash collateral, debtor-in-possession financing, inter-creditor agreements, cash management structures, asset sales, Chapter 11 plans, Article 9 sales, and all other aspects of financial restructurings.
