The San Antonio office sits on the famed Paseo del Rio (Riverwalk) in the heart of downtown San Antonio – the home of the Alamo, Mission Trail and many Texas historical and tourist attractions. Our lawyers handle complex corporate, capital formation, energy, labor and employment, real estate, water law, IP and litigation matters as trusted advisors of our clients. Our clients include top tier national, regional and local clients including Valero Energy Corporation, HEB, CPS Energy, USAA, Vulcan Materials, CST Brands and many other clients.

In San Antonio, we have developed and continue to enjoy a large presence in the community. Our lawyers include past Bar section Association presidents, past and current chairs of local Chambers of Commerce and related committees and current board members of numerous charitable and civic organizations. Our administrative partner Diana Liebmann is past-president of the San Antonio Bar Association Natural Resources Section and advisory board member of the Greater San Antonio Chamber of Commerce.

Our lawyers are committed to giving back to the community through leadership, participation and financial support of organizations such as the United Way, Child Advocates of San Antonio, Inc., the San Antonio Zoo and the Arc of San Antonio, serving individuals with developmental disabilities. Our lawyers also support educational organizations and dedicate their time through adjunct teaching in Central and South Texas.
