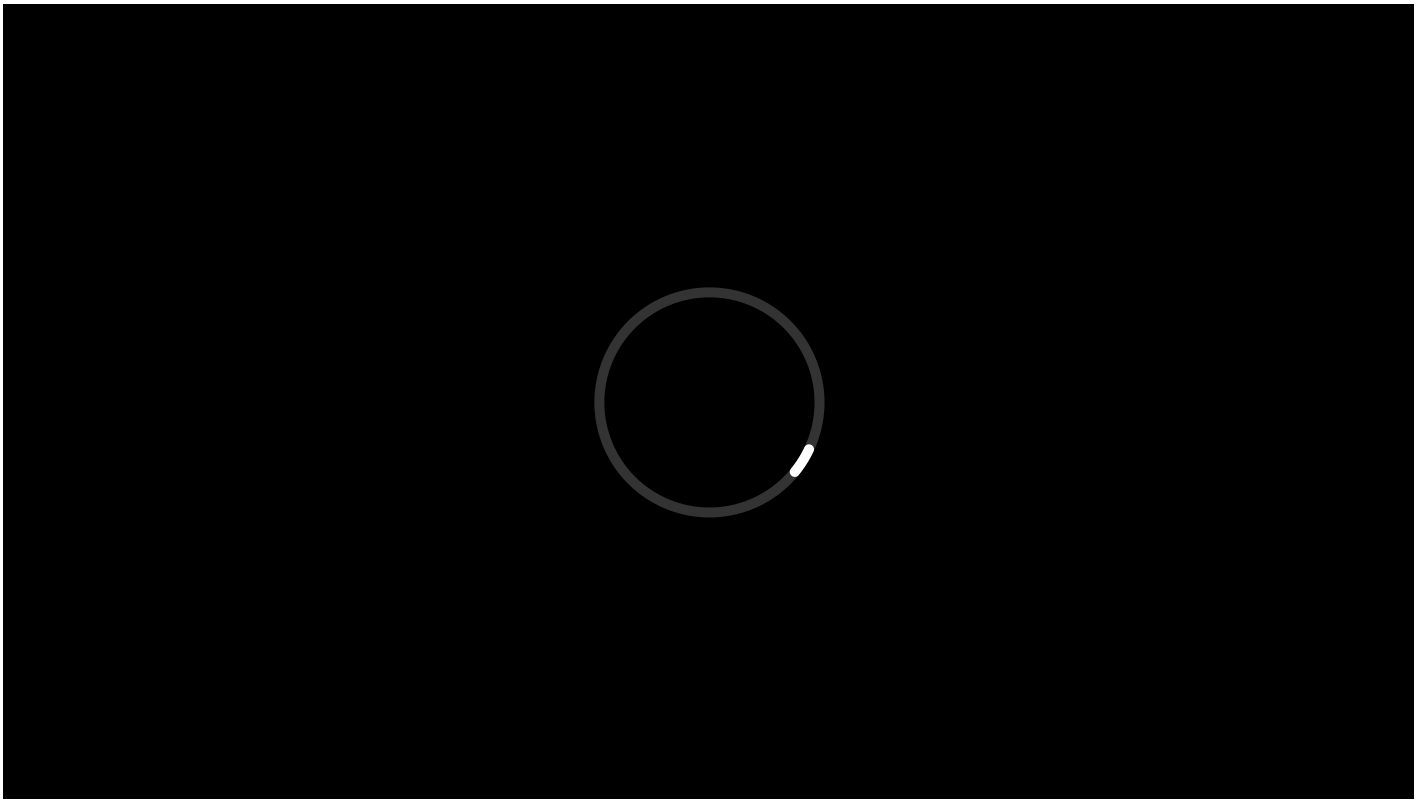
How early in the life of a project does a project company need to be incorporated?

By Conrad Purcell | November 21, 2023

RELATED PRACTICES Energy Transition, Energy, Power and Natural Resources, Renewable Energy

The key structuring considerations for sponsors developing a project include: i) maximisation of tax efficiency; ii) limitation of liability; iii) ease of realisation of profits; and iv) the ability to transfer ownership of a project at a later date. This video explores how these aims may be facilitated through corporate structuring.



© 2026 Haynes and Boone, LLP