

Updated Edition - Lexology Getting the Deal Through - Shipbuilding 2023: England and Wales

March 21, 2023 William Cecil, Fiona Cain, Mette Duffy

PRACTICES Shipping, Ship Sale and Purchase, Ship Construction and Conversion, Shipping Dispute Resolution

The latest edition of the Lexology Getting the Deal Through – Shipbuilding guide has now been published.

The chapter on shipbuilding contracts governed by the law of England and Wales is written by Haynes Boone’s William Cecil, Mark Johnson, Fiona Cain and Mette Duffy. It has been updated this year to include recent case law on guarantees, sanctions and liquidated damages clauses, as well as developments with autonomous vessels and alternative fuels.

Read the chapter here.

The Lexology Getting the Deal Through – Shipbuilding guide is part of the series of law guides published by Law Business Research that provide an overview of specialist areas of the law in a variety of international jurisdictions. The eleventh edition of this annual publication will cover 8 jurisdictions.

For each jurisdiction, leading shipbuilding practitioners answer the same key questions on the following subjects: Participation and Ownership; Key Contractual Considerations; Pricing, Payment and Financing; Default Liabilities and Remedies; Contract Forms and Assignment as well as Updates and Trends.

Reproduced with permission from Law Business Research Ltd. This article was first published in Lexology Getting the Deal Through – Shipbuilding 2023. (Published: March 2023). See here for further information.