

Haynes and Boone Represents Bancomext in Financing Real Estate Purchase

February 24, 2020 Eduardo Corzo

PRACTICES Finance, Mexico, Real Estate Finance

Haynes Boone Counsel Eduardo Corzo represented Bancomext in financing the purchase of an office building in Mexico City.

Corzo is a transactional lawyer with extensive experience in energy, maritime law, finance and real estate

Here is an excerpt of coverage from Latin Lawyer:

Ritch, Mueller, Heather y Nicolau, SC in Mexico City has helped German property investor GLL Real Estate Partners buy an office building in the Mexican capital.

Greenberg Traurig, SC in Mexico City helped local real estate developer Desarrolladora del Parque sell the majority of its ownership in the building, which is located in Mexico City's affluent Lomas de Chapultepec area.

GLL obtained a loan from Bancomext to finance the purchase. The lender enlisted Haynes Boone LLP in New York. The deal closed on 10 December with no value disclosed.

To read the full article, click here.