"Live from GCC East with Alex Grishman" highlights Haynes Boone Partner Alex Grishman, co-chair of the firm's Digital Assets and Blockchain – Financial Transaction and Regulatory Practice Group, and his insights at ALM's General Counsel Conference East 2025 in New York City. In the Law.com Legal Speak podcast, he discusses the evolving role of in-house counsel in navigating financial regulation, digital assets and blockchain. Grishman emphasizes how legal leaders must adapt to rapid innovation in fintech while ensuring compliance and stability. The conference brought together general counsel, legal executives and industry professionals to address leadership, technology, cybersecurity, ESG, data privacy and regulatory change.
