

Haynes Boone in Texas Lawbook: Haynes Boone Did Not Ghost on 2023 Pro Bono Work

November 6, 2023 Sakina Foster

Haynes Boone was mentioned in a recent Texas Lawbook article for their recent pro bono work, along with a few awards. Read excerpts below:

The TMCP Trailblazer of the Year Award went to Sakina Rasheed Foster, managing partner of Haynes Boone's Dallas office. The award recognizes an outside counsel who has bolstered DEI through hiring, retention and mentoring of ethnic minority, women and LGBTQ+ attorneys; partnering with diverse-owned law firms; or bar and community involvement.

Last week was the ABA's Pro Bono Week, and Haynes Boone ended the national celebration receiving DVAP's 2023 Law Firm of the Year Award for firm attorneys' dedication to volunteering their pro bono legal services every month at DVAP's virtual legal clinics. Attorney development specialist Belinda Seymour also received the Clinic Coordinator of the Year Award for her work growing and promoting Haynes Boone's volunteer efforts.

To read the full article, click here.