

Haynes and Boone Featured as Go-To Firm for PTAB Petitioners

February 1, 2019

PRACTICES Patent Litigation, Patent Office Trials, Patents, Intellectual Property

Law360 included Haynes Boone in a feature about patent litigation trends in 2018. While 2018 was a year of slowdown for patent case filings, Haynes Boone maintained its position as one of the most active firms representing petitioners at the Patent Trial and Review Board.

Here is an excerpt:

The most active law firms at the PTAB include some familiar names as well, with Haynes Boone LLP and Sterne Kessler Goldstein & Fox PLLC rounding out the list of top law firms representing petitioners at the PTAB.

To read the full article, click here. (Subscription required)

The firm was also included in an article about the firms who scored the most patent work in 2018.

To read the full article, click here. (Subscription required)