The Texas Lawbook Features Haynes Boone's Pro Bono Week Efforts

November 24, 2026

During National Pro Bono Week, Haynes Boone attorneys across multiple offices participated in a variety of pro bono initiatives, including legal clinics, educational programs and community fundraising efforts. The Texas Lawbook recently highlighted these efforts and the firm's commitment to expanding access to justice and legal resources.

Read the full article from The Texas Lawbook here, and learn more about the firm's Pro Bono Week activities below.

- Firmwide Pro Bono Week Participation: More than 50 Haynes Boone attorneys participated in nine Pro Bono Week events hosted and organized by the firm, including several held in collaboration with attorneys and professionals from other organizations.
- DVAP Virtual Intakes: One of the Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program's monthly virtual intake clinics coincided with Pro Bono Week. More than 10 Haynes Boone attorneys signed up to participate.
- Austin Legal Intake Clinic: Haynes Boone Austin partnered with PayPal and Volunteer Legal Services of Central Texas to help screen low-income Austin-area residents for civil legal needs. More than 10 Haynes Boone volunteers participated in the clinic.
- Innocence Project of Texas Golf Tournament: Haynes Boone sponsored the fundraising tournament, with a team from the firm placing second. Per IPTX, Haynes Boone joined other sponsors in helping raise $70,000 to support its mission to free the innocent, prevent wrongful convictions and help exonerees rebuild their lives.
- San Antonio Legal Intake Clinic: Haynes Boone San Antonio partnered with the San Antonio Legal Services Association (SALSA) to assist low-income residents with wills and small estate matters.
- Houston Volunteer Lawyers Veterans Clinic: Haynes Boone partnered with the Harris County District Attorney's Office and Houston Volunteer Lawyers at a quarterly clinic held at the VA, providing legal advice and intake services to veterans in the Houston area.
- CLE with Texas Advocacy Project: Attorneys and other attendees participated in a training on trauma-informed lawyering and representing survivors of power-based abuse.

© 2026 Haynes and Boone, LLP