

DOL Updates Model CHIP Notice

---

August 9, 2019

---

---

The DOL has updated the model notice that employers providing group health coverage may use to notify eligible employees about Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) premium assistance programs available in their home states. Employers must provide this notice before the start of the plan year. The updated model CHIP notice is available here.