

Future Updates on the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021

January 13, 2021

We previously provided an overview of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021 (the "CAA") and the specific benefits changes employers need to focus on right now, which can be found here. There were numerous other provisions of the CAA that will impact retirement and group health plans. As the effective dates for those other provisions approach, we will provide you with a summary of the new provisions and how they may impact your plans.
