

IRS Releases FAQ Relating to Same-Sex Couples

---

October 18, 2012

---

---

The IRS recently released answers to frequently asked questions regarding taxation of same sex couples. In the FAQ, the IRS reinforces its position that provisions of the federal tax law that apply only to married taxpayers or their spouses do not apply to same-sex partners because federal law does not treat same-sex partners as married for federal tax purposes. The FAQ can be found here.