Last Day for Coronavirus-Related Distributions is December 30, 2020

December 22, 2020

As a reminder, the last day that coronavirus-related distributions may be made from an eligible retirement plan to a qualified individual is December 30, 2020, and not December 31, 2020.?Ã¡ Distributions may be included in income ratably over the 2020, 2021, and 2022 tax years or, if the participant elects, may be included entirely in income in 2020.?Ã¡

For more information on coronavirus-related distributions, please see the IRS FAQs here.

© 2026 Haynes and Boone, LLP