

HB Media Minute - Episode 12: Avoiding Liability for Using A Person's Image in Your Creative Work

June 17, 2021

PRACTICES Media Entertainment and Sports, Anti-SLAPP and First Amendment Rights, Litigation, Media and Entertainment Litigation

Today's topic: talent releases and how to avoid liability for using a person's image in a creative work. Among other issues, we'll talk about the particular circumstances that require talent releases and the sorts of claims you can face if you are accused of the unauthorized use of a person's image.

We are joined by Chrissy Long, an associate in Haynes Boone's Fort Worth Office and a member of the firm's Media and Entertainment Litigation Practice Group. Chrissy has experience in a wide variety of litigation matters, on behalf of media and other corporate clients, and has written many articles touching on media and entertainment law and First Amendment topics.
