

HB Media Minute - Episode 2: Restrictions on Open Government and Public Information During COVID-19

November 11, 2020 Thomas Williams

PRACTICES Media Entertainment and Sports, Anti-SLAPP and First Amendment Rights, Media and Entertainment Litigation

Today's discussion focuses on the impact of COVID-19 on government transparency - in particular, the public's ability to fully access public meetings and open records. Moderated by Nathan Koppel, Director of Media Relations at Haynes Boone, Nathan is joined by Haynes Boone Partner Thomas Williams, who has decades of experience handling cases involving First Amendment issues and claims of libel, invasion of privacy and many other issues.
