Haynes Boone has been helping clients successfully close transactions, clear regulatory hurdles, and manage disputes involving cross-border trade for more than 25 years in Mexico. The firm has one of the largest Latin American/Caribbean practices among the AmLaw 100 law firms, with approximately 60 lawyers serving clients from the Dallas, Houston, Mexico City, New York, London, Washington, D.C., and Austin offices. Many of the firm's lawyers are native speakers or fluent in both English and Spanish and are comfortable working with civil law and international law concepts. The firm is experienced in virtually all Latin American and Caribbean markets. Haynes Boone lawyers have helped clients navigate and complete some of the most ambitious and challenging projects involving transportation, real estate, infrastructure and energy.

Haynes Boone, SC, the firm's fully-integrated Mexico City office, was formed in 1994, with lawyers advising on Mexican Law. The fully bilingual and bi-cultural Mexico City office has legal professionals licensed in both Mexico and the U.S. and trained in both legal systems.
