The Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program (DVAP) honored Haynes Boone with the 2020 Gold Star Award for Pro Bono Service for law firms with 150 or more lawyers in the Dallas area. This was the sixth consecutive year the firm has been honored for its outstanding pro bono services in Dallas and beyond.

Haynes Boone was recognized during the virtual DVAP Pro Bono Awards Celebration on Oct. 30.

“We are proud to again receive this honor in recognition of our pro bono contributions in the past year,” said David Taubenfeld, partner and co-chair of the firm’s Pro Bono and Public Service Committee. “Despite the pandemic, we have seen our lawyers and staff continue to devote countless hours to providing legal aid to those in need.”

DVAP is an organization dedicated to increasing and enhancing pro bono legal services to low-income people in Dallas through the recruitment, training, and support of volunteer attorneys.

Additionally, Taubenfeld was featured as DVAP’s October 2020 Volunteer of the Month.

Haynes Boone has long been committed to providing pro bono legal aid, believing that a fulfilling professional career is much more than simply handling major business transactions or trying complex commercial lawsuits. The firm’s lawyers focus their pro bono efforts on helping those who need it most but are least able to afford legal services.

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with offices in Texas, New York, California, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Washington, D.C., London, Mexico City and Shanghai, providing a full spectrum of legal services in energy, technology, financial services and private equity. With more than 575 lawyers, Haynes Boone is ranked among the largest U.S.-based firms by The National Law Journal, The American Lawyer and The Lawyer. The firm has also been recognized across the board for excellence in the BTI Consulting Group’s 2020 “A-Team” report, which identifies the law firms that in-house counsel commend for providing superior client service.
