PRACTICES Energy, Power and Natural Resources

Legal news website Above the Law ranks Haynes Boone among the top 10 U.S. energy law firms based on a survey of in-house counsel in the energy industry in 2018.

The industry-specific rankings are part of Above the Law's new Outside Counsel Rankings, based on a national survey of corporate counsel. More than 1,000 in-house lawyers across over 500 companies based in more than 50 cities responded to the survey. Above the Law said that by reflecting the opinions of in-house counsel at top companies, the rankings are designed to provide “a true measure of law firm ‘prestige,’ the kind that leads directly to business.”

Haynes Boone was one of the 10 firms that in-house counsel rated as Top Outside Counsel for Energy.

Haynes Boone's Energy Practice Group handles high-stakes transactions and litigation, as well as financings, capital markets, commodities and regulatory advice, for a diverse array of industry clients in the United States and overseas. With offices in some of the major energy capitals of the world, we know the markets, the players and the industry. Our clients include independent U.S. oil and gas producers, major international oil companies, global commodity traders and domestic power companies, along with commercial lenders and private equity firms that are leaders in providing capital to the industry. Many of our lawyers and professional landmen have worked in the industry in a variety of roles, including as in-house and general counsel, petroleum engineers, geophysicists and energy bankers.
