Benchmark Litigation has shortlisted Haynes Boone as one of the Top 7 litigation firms in Texas in its 2022 U.S. Awards.

Benchmark Litigation is published by Euromoney Institutional Investor PLC. The awards, which will be announced at a ceremony next month, recognize the country's most distinguished litigators and their firms for their exemplary work over the past year. The Benchmark team used peer review-based research and submission reviews to uncover the most impactful cases, the lawyers and law firms behind them, and the litigators who have paved the way.

In October, the firm and 17 of its lawyers were featured in Benchmark Litigation's U.S. 2022 list of the nation's leading litigation firms and lawyers. Read more here.

"The latest Benchmark recognition is a testament to the exceptional results we have achieved for clients in Texas," said Haynes Boone Partner Ben Mesches, co-chair of the Litigation Practice Group.

Haynes Boone litigators routinely handle some of the most significant and high-profile cases, helping clients prevail on claims and fend off massive judgments while also establishing favorable legal precedent. The firm's Texas litigators were recognized in the 2021 Chambers USA guide in such diverse litigation practices as antitrust, energy, insurance, labor and employment, first amendment, securities, oil and gas litigation, and white collar. Haynes Boone's Appellate Practice Group was rated Band 1 in Texas in Chambers USA 2021.

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with 18 offices, spanning Texas, New York, California, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Washington, D.C., London, Mexico City, and Shanghai, providing a full spectrum of legal services in energy, technology, financial services, and private equity. With 600 lawyers, Haynes Boone is ranked among the largest U.S.-based firms by The National Law Journal, The American Lawyer and The Lawyer. It was recognized for excellence in the BTI Consulting Group's 2021 "A-Team" report, which identifies the law firms that in-house counsel commend for providing superior client service.
