A Haynes Boone team lead by Partner Tom Harris represented Brookshire Grocery Co. (BGC) in its acquisition of Reasor's LLC's 17 grocery stores in Oklahoma.

The transaction was completed Jan. 25, 2022. With the acquisition, BGC now has more than 200 stores with close to 20,000 employee-partners serving Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma.

"We are excited for the opportunity to work with the Reasor's team and to serve the Tulsa community," Brad Brookshire, Chairman and CEO for Brookshire Grocery Co., said in a statement. "We officially welcome Reasor's employees, customers and the communities of Oklahoma to our BGC family. Reasor's is such an incredible brand operated by some of the best retail folks in the industry."

Harris, who organized and leads the firm's M&A Practice, has been a trusted business advisor to clients for more than 30 years, helping clients successfully close hundreds of acquisitions, divestitures, and other corporate transactions, including growth capital investments. Cameron Scales and Kate Register, who are members of the firm's M&A and Private Equity Practices, managed substantial portions of the transaction.

The lawyers were assisted by a broader Haynes Boone team, including:

Finance: Partner Paul Amiel and Associates Alex Kirincic and Laura Shapiro

Real Estate: Partner Brad Holdbrook and Associate Maddie Ballard

Employee Benefits: Counsel Scott Thompson and Tiffany Walker and Associate Lucy Hong

Insurance: Partner David Taubenfeld

Regulatory/FDA/Pharmacy: Partner Jennifer Kreick and Associate Kayla Cristales

The Food Partners served as a financial advisor to BGC.
