Haynes Boone's Finance Practice Group and many of the lawyers in the group were ranked as industry leaders by Chambers USA 2021 (Chambers and Partners).

Haynes Boone ranked among the Top 10 firms in the country in Chambers USA 2021 in the Nationwide Financial Services Regulation Banking (Compliance) section. Chambers said Haynes Boone is "known for its impressive capabilities on international bank regulatory matters" and that "lawyers at the firm are particularly skilled at advising on all aspects of the Dodd-Frank Act, including Volcker Rule compliance."

The firm also ranked among the Top 5 in Texas in Banking and Finance. Chambers praised the team for being "well versed in handling matters such as complex project financings, syndicated loan transactions and equity lending," adding, they "regularly represent large banks and private equity firms in sophisticated financing matters."

Chambers shared feedback from clients, who said:

- "They're practical and seek to find good solutions, not just check boxes."
- "They are best-in-class...they were excellent in their drafting skills, precedent database, market knowledge and overall execution."
- "The firm is very responsive and takes a collaborative approach in representing us. They are good at understanding and efficiently implementing our objectives."

Additionally, the Chambers USA 2021 directory recognized finance lawyers from Haynes Boone's Dallas, Houston, New York, and Charlotte offices. Craig S. Unterberg and Giorgio Bovenzi are ranked nationwide in Financial Services Regulation – Banking (Compliance). Matthew Frankle ranked nationwide as a leader nationwide in Derivatives.
