A Haynes Boone deal team represented Clinigen Limited in its acquisition of Drug Safety Navigator Inc. (DSN), a specialist pharmacovigilance service provider based in the U.S.

A global pharmaceutical services company focused on providing ethical access to medicines, Clinigen said the acquisition enables it to add vital pharmacovigilance capabilities to its services offering for pharmaceutical and biotech clients.

“The acquisition of Drug Safety Navigator represents an important step in expanding our service offering to pharma and biotech companies across the globe and provides another touchpoint to engage with our clients along the medicine lifecycle,” Clinigen Chief Executive Officer David Bryant said in an announcement.
