As part of its ongoing effort to provide maximum value to clients, Haynes Boone has hired David Boden as its Chief Operating Officer.

A licensed certified public accountant, Boden will oversee many critical aspects of the firm's operations.

"Dave brings tremendous experience and insights to the firm that will immediately bring value to our clients," said Haynes Boone Managing Partner Taylor Wilson. "As we continue to build on our practice strengths and expand into new markets, Dave will help ensure that we remain among industry leaders at developing and deploying talent in the most efficient and optimal manner to help our clients achieve their legal and business objectives."

Boden previously worked for more than 12 years at Snell & Wilmer, including as COO and, prior to that, as the firm's Chief Financial Officer.

He has nearly two decades of experience in the legal industry and also has worked in a finance and operations capacity with technology and financial firms. Boden received a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Utah. He will be based in Haynes Boone's Dallas Office.

Boden says he was enticed by the opportunity to join a firm that has a solid plan to build on its core strengths in the energy, technology, financial services, and private equity sectors. "Haynes Boone has a clearly defined vision and knows who they are. I am impressed with the leadership team and its keen focus on strengthening client relationships as the firm implements its strategic plan. They are clearly poised for continued growth nationally and internationally," he said. "I was also very much drawn to the culture of the firm."

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with offices in Texas, New York, California, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Washington, D.C., London, Mexico City and Shanghai, providing a full spectrum of legal services in energy, technology, financial services and private equity. With 600
