Haynes Boone Counsel Errol Brown is listed in 5280 Magazine among Denver's Top Lawyers 2022 in the Entertainment & Sports category. Errol is a member of the firm's Finance and Project Finance and Development Practice Groups.

For the listing, 5280 Magazine invited attorneys in the seven-county metro area to vote for peers they respect most in 50 legal specialties. Following the survey responses, the magazine conducted research and reporting to get an on-the-ground perspective and answer these questions: Who are the best litigators? The finest contract writers? Who's been quietly building a name for herself? Who's been coasting on an outdated reputation? Based on the interviews and survey results, it assembled Denver's Top Lawyers 2022.

Errol joined Haynes Boone in 2020 and advises companies in a variety of industries, with an emphasis on sports, media, entertainment, and technology. His practice is focused on corporate transaction and governance matters related to sports and entertainment venues, professional sport teams, broadcasting rights and emerging technologies.

Errol previously served as vice president of Corporate Strategy for Aon Cyber Solutions, where he was responsible for product and partnership development. In addition, he has served as in-house counsel to a global private equity firm and a national cooperative bank along with working as a consultant at a Big Four accounting firm.
