Firm Represents Texas Company in $320 Million Transaction

By Charles F. Plenge, Kenneth K. Bezozo, Bill S. Kleinman | July 6, 2011

RELATED PRACTICES Mergers and Acquisitions

Haynes Boone recently represented Texas Advanced Optoelectronic Solutions Inc. (TAOS), a leading optoelectronic solutions provider, in its $320 million combination with austriamicrosystems AG, a leading global designer and manufacturer of high-performance analog integrated circuits for the consumer, communications, industrial, medical and automotive markets in a strategic transaction. austriamicrosystems AG acquired 100 percent of TAOS' shares and the TAOS stockholders became the largest stockholders in publicly traded austriamicrosystems AG, acquiring more than 20 percent of the combined companies. Partner Bill Kleinman led the transaction team that included partners Chuck Plenge (employee benefits), Ken Bezozo (tax), Brandon Jones (tax) and Associate David Colletti (M&A).