PRACTICES Real Estate

George Hinchey has rejoined Haynes Boone as a partner in the firm's San Antonio office.

A San Antonio native, Hinchey represents private and institutional parties with the acquisition, disposition, leasing, financing and development of commercial properties.

"George has extensive experience in commercial real estate and represents many leading businesses, which routinely seek out his insight and counsel," said San Antonio Partner Frank Ruttenberg, the head of Haynes Boone's San Antonio Real Estate practice. "He perfectly complements our real estate practice and will help us expand the practice in Texas and beyond."

Hinchey was recognized by S.A. Scene as a "Rising Star" in 2018 and as one of the city's "Best Lawyers" in real estate transactions in 2019. He previously served as a board member and director of Las Casas Foundation, which is dedicated to the development of the performing arts in San Antonio through education and scholarships.

"I am excited to return to Haynes Boone, where I have many close colleagues," Hinchey said. "The firm has a phenomenal real estate practice that is competitive in the Central Texas market and has the bandwidth to serve clients nationwide."

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with offices in Texas, New York, California, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Washington, D.C., London, Mexico City and Shanghai, providing a full spectrum of legal services in energy, technology, financial services and private equity. With more than 550 lawyers, Haynes Boone is ranked among the largest U.S.-based firms by The National Law Journal, The American Lawyer and The Lawyer.

The firm's Real Estate Practice Group counsels clients in the U.S. and overseas, handling every facet of buying, selling, developing, operating, leasing and financing real estate. The group represents institutional owners, developers, financial sources, borrowers, operators, investors, landlords and tenants, among others.

Lawyers in Haynes Boone's San Antonio office handle complex corporate, capital formation, energy, labor and employment, real estate, water law, IP and litigation matters on behalf of top tier national, regional and local clients.
