Haynes and Boone's ClientConnect' Selected One of Promise House's Outstanding Corporations

November 8, 2007

CONTACT:
Dawn Teel-Friedman
Haynes Boone
214.651.5235 (office)

DALLAS ? ClientConnect?, a software company created by Haynes Boone, will be honored as one of Promise House?s ?Outstanding Corporations? for 2007 at the charity?s Thanksgiving Awards Banquet. The annual event recognizes extraordinary local corporations, organizations, volunteers, individuals, agency staff, youth and parents.

The award will be presented at 6:00 p.m. Nov. 13 at The Top of the Cliff in the Bank of America building, 400 S. Zang Blvd., Dallas, TX.

Promise House has provided shelter for runaway, homeless and at-risk youth since 1984. The non-profit provides crisis intervention, emergency shelter, transitional living, education, counseling, street outreach, and advocacy programs for youth and families in crisis.

ClientConnect? is a web-based, interactive software application designed to enhance communication and collaboration between clients and Haynes Boone attorneys. The use of ClientConnect? allows all designated team members involved in a client?s project to access, monitor and share key information in real time. The application was designed from the client's perspective to be user friendly, flexible and highly customizable to adapt to the client's business practices and processes.

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with offices in Texas, New York, Washington, D.C., Mexico City and Moscow, providing a full spectrum of legal services. With more than 450 attorneys, Haynes Boone is ranked among the largest law firms in the nation by The National Law Journal. The firm has been recognized by Vault.com as one of the "20 Best Law Firms to Work For," by Corporate Board Member Magazine as one of the ?Best Corporate Law Firms in America,? and has received the Minority Corporate Counsel Association?s Thomas L. Sager Award for its commitment to diversity.

© 2026 Haynes and Boone, LLP