Haynes Boone Advises Toyota in Connection with Build Out of Mexican Manufacturing Plant

By Larry B. Pascal, Edgar Klee, César Ramirez del Angel, Mauricio Reynoso | July 31, 2020

RELATED PRACTICES Mexico, International, Real Estate

Haynes Boone and its Mexico City affiliate Haynes Boone, SC have represented Toyota Motor North America and its Mexican affiliate Toyota Motor Manufacturing de Guanajuato in connection with the construction and development of its new automobile manufacturing plant in Apaseo El Grande, Guanajuato, Mexico. The Guanajuato plant is manufacturing Toyota Tacoma pick-up trucks.

Haynes Boone advised on issues involving plant construction and other real estate issues, permitting, and other infrastructure issues including power transmission and generation.

Working on the project were Haynes Boone Partner Larry Pascal, chair of the firm's Americas Practice Group and co-chair of the International Practice Group, and César Ramirez del Ángel, a foreign counsel in Haynes Boone's International Practice Group. Also working on the project were Mexico City partner Edgar Klee and Mexico City Counsel Mauricio Reynoso.

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with offices in Texas, New York, California, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Washington, D.C., London, Mexico City and Shanghai, providing a full spectrum of legal services in energy, technology, financial services and private equity. With more than 575 lawyers, Haynes Boone is ranked among the largest U.S.-based firms by The National Law Journal, The American Lawyer and The Lawyer. It also was recognized across the board for excellence in the BTI Consulting Group's 2020 "A-Team" report, which identifies the law firms that in-house counsel commend for providing superior client service.

© 2026 Haynes and Boone, LLP