Haynes Boone Fund Finance Group Shortlisted for 2024 Drawdown Awards

By James Tinworth, Isabella Shaw | March 13, 2024

RELATED PRACTICES Fund Finance

Haynes Boone is pleased to be named a finalist in the Fund Finance Adviser category of The Drawdown Awards 2024. This follows the firm's win in the same category in 2022.

The Drawdown Awards celebrate excellence and innovation within private fund operations. A panel of leading capital fund COOs, CFOs, CCOs, GCs and CTOs rigorously evaluated all award nominees to determine a list of finalists as well as the eventual winners.

The Haynes Boone Fund Finance Practice Group is a global leader in representing commercial and investment banks and GP Sponsors in fund finance facilities for private capital funds across the globe. The firm was instrumental in developing the structure and documentation for the first subscription-secured financing in the late 1980s, and it continues to be an innovator in the market.

In London, the firm's fund finance team is led by Partner Emma Russell. It also includes Partners Jennifer Passagne, Emily Fuller and James Tinworth, as well as Associates Alethea Barretto, Alexander Short, Dylan Glazier and Isabella Shaw.

Winners of The Drawdown Awards 2024 will be announced at a ceremony on June 13 at the De Vere Grand Connaught Rooms in London.

© 2026 Haynes and Boone, LLP