Haynes Boone's Patent Prosecution Group was recognized in the 2024 Leaders League. The Patent Prosecution Group received a "highly recommended" ranking.

Partners Alan Herda, David O'Dell, Richard Rochford and Jeffrey Wolfson were all named as key contacts for the practice.

Founded in 1996 in Paris, Leaders League is an international rating agency and business services. Its focus is in putting together rankings and market research for corporations and executives to use when making decisions.

The research process spans a four-month period for each ranking cycle. This includes collecting and processing the data from applications, client feedback, peer feedback and a qualified third-party review.

Haynes Boone's Patent Prosecution and Counseling Practice Group boasts experience in filing patents spanning numerous technologies, including medical devices, semiconductors, nanotechnology, oil well technology, wireless technology, software and telecommunications networking equipment, among others. The high volume of the filings over the years has also given them particular skill and insight into helping clients with patent reviews and reexaminations, reissues and other contested post-grant proceedings before the USPTO, including inter partes review and covered business patent reviews.
