

Haynes Boone Recognized in 2026 Chambers Specialist Guides

July 23, 2026

RELATED PRACTICES Family Office, Crisis Management

The 2026 edition of Chambers Specialist Guides recognized Haynes Boone among leading firms and professionals distinguished for their client service across select practice areas and industries.

The firm's Crisis Management Practice Group earned its first-ever ranking in the 2026 Chambers Crisis & Risk Management Guide. The multidisciplinary team advises clients on a wide range of high stakes matters, including government investigations and enforcement actions, workplace incidents, cyber breaches, natural disasters and crisis events.

Clients praised the team for its responsiveness and depth of experience:

- "Haynes Boone is very knowledgeable, resourceful and readily available to provide great guidance through a difficult situation."
- "The group has a deep bench with subject matter expertise across multiple fronts. They can handle a gamut of issues that arise from a crisis event and can pivot and adjust as needed quickly. I have never experienced an instance where the team was not immediately responsive with excellent advice and information."

Additionally, the Chambers High Net Worth Guide has once again recognized Haynes Boone Partners Bill Mureiko and Sarah Marks in Private Wealth Law in Texas.

Clients highlighted their trusted counsel and technical skills:

- "Bill does an exceptional job for his clients."
- "The quality of Sarah's legal work and judgment is exceptional."

These recognitions add to Haynes Boone's record results in the 2026 edition of Chambers USA which ranked the firm among the nation's leading law firms with 111 lawyers and 44 practice rankings.