Haynes Boone is pleased to announce the relocation of its San Antonio office to a newly designed space, underscoring the firm's commitment to its clients in the region.

The firm will move into Suite 2400 in the same building it previously inhabited at 112 E. Pecan St. right above the iconic San Antonio Riverwalk. Haynes Boone now occupies about 17,000 square feet on the 24th floor of the building, featuring a much larger event space and more office space for the growing office.

"Our new office space reflects our commitment to serving our clients with excellence and innovation," said Diana Liebmann, the managing partner of Haynes Boone's San Antonio office. "The larger and more modern space for our team will foster an environment conducive to the level of collaboration that benefits our clients."

The firm's San Antonio office serves a wide array of clients, with partners in the firm's Energy, Labor & Employment, Intellectual Property, Fund Finance and Real Estate Practice Groups. The office recently added Real Estate Partner George Hinchey in March and saw Carlos Carrasco promoted to partner at the beginning of this year.

Haynes Boone's move in San Antonio is the fourth in Texas since the Fall, and the fifth overall, following the firm's relocation of its largest office to a new building in Dallas in September, its Austin office relocation in December, its Woodlands office relocation in February and its relocation in Charlotte at the beginning of this month.
