

Haynes and Boone Represents Callon Petroleum Company in Senior Notes Offering and Common Stock Offering

By Paul H. Amiel, Monika Singh Sanford, Simin Sun | June 20, 2018

RELATED PRACTICES Capital Markets and Securities, Corporate

Haynes Boone represented Callon Petroleum Company as issuer's counsel in its private offering of $400 million of 6.375 percent senior unsecured notes due 2026. The offering closed on June 7, 2018.

Haynes Boone also advised Callon in its previously announced public offering of 25,300,000 shares of its common stock. The offering closed May 30, 2018 and generated approximately $288.6 million of total net proceeds, after deducting underwriters' discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses.

Houston Partner Bill Nelson led the Haynes Boone team representing Callon in the transactions. He was assisted by Houston Partner Kristina Trauger, Dallas Partners Paul Amiel and Monika Sanford and Houston Associates Simin Sun and Janna Mouret.