

Haynes Boone Secures Federal Circuit Patent Appeal Victory for Unified Patents

March 6, 2025 Debbie McComas, Angela Oliver

PRACTICES Appellate

Haynes Boone successfully represented Unified Patents before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, securing a significant ruling that affirmed the Patent Trial and Appeal Board's (PTAB) decision invalidating 29 out of 31 claims of a patent asserted by Gesture Technology Partners LLC.

The ruling marks another success for Unified Patents in its efforts to combat low-quality patents used in litigation. Unified Patents General Counsel Jonathan Stroud praised the work of the Haynes Boone team in earning this victory.

"Debbie McComas and Angela Oliver of Haynes Boone and their team are incredible, and our in-house team did an amazing job on this appeal," Stroud told Law360. "The merits speak for themselves. We are lucky to have them."

Haynes Boone's nationally recognized Federal Circuit Practice Group is committed to achieving the best possible results for clients in high-stakes disputes in the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals. In Patexia's 2024 CAFC Intelligence Report, the firm ranked third overall among 1,000-plus law firms presenting in the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, taking into account Haynes Boone's success and activity rates.