

New HB Connections Magazine: Read About Haynes Boone Alums

August 5, 2022 Taylor Wilson

Haynes Boone has released the latest edition of the firm's alumni magazine, HB Connections, which features articles about distinguished alums and their inspiring accomplishments and journeys.

In this edition, see how Haynes Boone alums responded to the new normal during the COVID-19 pandemic. Read about Pablo Sansot, a lawyer who is helping build a clean mobility ecosystem in Mexico and Latin America; Punam Kaji, who provides a "podium" for Asian American women lawyers to break quarantine isolation; and Shawn Askinosie, a former criminal defense lawyer who runs a successful bean-to-bar chocolate factory.

The publication also features a Q&A with C.E. Rhodes, Frost Bank executive vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary, who recounts his experience during the pandemic and discusses his road to success.

"These alums are truly inspiring, and we thank them for taking time to share their stories with us," said Managing Partner Taylor Wilson.

To read the Summer 2022 edition of HB Connections, click here. To learn more about the firm's alumni program, click here.

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with 18 offices, spanning Texas, New York, California, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Washington, D.C., London, Mexico City and Shanghai, providing a full spectrum of legal services in energy, technology, financial services and private equity. With 600 lawyers, Haynes Boone is ranked among the largest U.S.-based firms by The National Law Journal, The American Lawyer and The Lawyer. It was recognized in the BTI Consulting Group's 2022 "A-Team" report, which identifies the law firms that in-house counsel commend for providing superior client service.