The National Black Lawyers (NBL) has named Haynes Boone Associate Kristina Pierre-Louis to its 2022 list of “Top 40 Under 40” Black Lawyers in Texas.

Based in Dallas, Kristina is a member of the firm’s Litigation Practice Group, with a focus on commercial litigation. She joined Haynes Boone in June.

NBL is an invitation-only professional development and networking association comprised of the top African American attorneys from across the country. The NBL “40 Under 40” recognizes talented Black lawyers under the age of 40 who have an outstanding reputation among peers, the judiciary and the public. The honorees are nominated from leading lawyers, organization members, and Executive Committee members. Selection is by invitation only following a multi-phase review process that includes third-party research.

“We are proud to recognize the contributions of Kristina Pierre-Louis to the legal profession and welcome them into our African American legal brain trust,” the NBL stated in a press release.

In addition to commercial litigation, Kristina has experience in complex litigation involving insurance litigation, with a focus on health, life, and disability insurance litigation and payor/provider disputes, toxic exposures, product liability, and premises liability. Kristina was named as a “One to Watch” in 2018 by the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers.

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with 18 offices in Texas, New York, California, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Washington, D.C., London, Mexico City and Shanghai, providing a full spectrum of legal services in energy, technology, financial services and private equity. With 600 lawyers, Haynes Boone is ranked among the largest U.S.-based firms by The National Law Journal, The American Lawyer and The Lawyer. It was recognized in the BTI Consulting Group’s 2022 “A-Team” report, which identifies the law firms that in-house counsel commend for providing superior client service.
