The Texas Lawbook has reported that Haynes Boone ranked as the state's 9th most active deal firm in the first six months of 2022.

The Lawbook's Corporate Deal Tracker counts transactions in which Texas lawyers played a significant role on behalf of principals or third parties.

Haynes Boone additionally ranked 11th in the Corporate Deal Tracker ranking of M&A firms by deal value.

"We are pleased to have had a very busy start to 2022, with interesting work for great clients," said Partner Tom Harris, chair of Haynes Boone's Mergers & Acquisitions Practice Group.

Brandon McCoy, section chair of the M&A Practice added: "It is exciting to see that our production ranks us among the leading firms in middle-market M&A transactions, and it's a testament to our wonderful clients and hard-working attorneys."

Two Haynes Boone deal teams will receive deal of the year awards from The M&A Advisor at the 13th-Annual International M&A Awards gala on Sept. 21 in New York.

Haynes Boone was recognized by The M&A Advisor for the following deals:

- Partners Simin Sun and Jeff Wolfson represented Strides Pharma Science whose wholly owned subsidiaries entered into definitive agreements with subsidiaries of Endo International to acquire its manufacturing facility in New York and various Abbreviated New Drug Applications (ANDAs).
- Generational Equity, a leading M&A advisor for privately held businesses, sold its client, Eastern Business Forms, Inc. (EBF), to private investment firm Gen Cap America. Partner Blaine Statham and Associate Chase Proctor represented EBF in the transaction.

And earlier this year, the Global M&A Network, sponsor of the M&A Atlas Awards, honored Haynes Boone with a mid-market deal of the year for its representation of Earthstone Energy Inc. in its acquisition of Permian Basin operator Chisholm Energy Holdings LLC, in a cash-and-stock transaction worth over $600 million.

Haynes Boone's M&A Practice Group has comprehensive experience handling a range of M&A matters, having helped clients close more than 500 transactions in the last five years, with an aggregate value exceeding $40 billion. The firm routinely represents private equity firms, closely held corporations, founders, large financial institutions and Fortune 500 public companies. The M&A team prides itself in crafting strategic solutions that advance clients' business objectives by anticipating and evaluating the roadblocks and opportunities that clients face on the way to closing a deal successfully.
