Haynes Boone is proud to announce that Lawyers of Color (LoC) has honored the firm with the Aspire Diversity Award.

“As evidenced by this award, Haynes Boone is committed to being a leader in the legal profession with respect to diversity, equity and inclusion,” said Sharon Jones, Chief DEI Officer of Haynes Boone. “We look forward to making further progress in ensuring that Haynes Boone fully reflects the diversity of the clients and communities we serve.”

LoC is a nonprofit devoted to promoting diversity in the legal profession and advancing democracy and equality in marginalized communities. They celebrate attorneys of color and conduct research and studies regarding the intersection of the legal profession and social justice. LoC has been recognized by the American Bar Association, National Black Law Students Association, and National Association of Black Journalists. They provide research, career development, and brand marketing opportunities to their clients and have a social media and email community of nearly 50,000 legal professionals, the largest of any minority legal organization.
