

Public Interest Law Initiative Recognizes Haynes Boone's Pro Bono Contributions in Illinois

June 21, 2021

The Public Interest Law Initiative (PILI) named Haynes Boone and 46 other law firms and corporations to its 2021 Pro Bono Recognition Roster.

The roster honors law firms and corporations that have made significant contributions and commitments to pro bono in Illinois by providing legal assistance to individuals, families, and communities in need.

Haynes Boone was recognized among honorees on June 16 during PILI's Annual Pro Bono Reception. The event involved a virtual pro bono tour of Illinois and remarks from Illinois Lt. Governor Juliana Stratton.

PILI's mission is to engage, inspire and empower those advancing equal access to justice. Through the collective efforts of law firms and corporations, low-income individuals across Illinois have access to the justice they deserve.
