Haynes Boone Associate Brian Singleterry has been named the 2023 Outstanding Young Lawyer by the Tarrant County Bar Association (TCBA). TCBA will present Brian with the award during its Law Day celebration on May 2, 2023.

Brian is an associate in the Litigation Practice Group, and he is based in Haynes Boone's Fort Worth office. His practice focuses on commercial litigation. He is also the former president of the Tarrant County Young Lawyers Association, an organization that engages in community service projects, holds CLEs and offers networking and mentoring opportunities for young lawyers.

Before attending law school, he worked in a corporate legal department, giving him firsthand knowledge of the client perspective on litigation. Brian then graduated first in his class from Texas A&M School of Law, where he served as an editor on the Texas A&M Law Review and earned a business-law certificate. Before joining the firm, Brian gained an array of litigation experience, having worked as a state prosecutor, a federal court law clerk, and in private practice handling personal-injury, professional-liability and business cases.

TCBA is a professional organization comprised of over 2,600 lawyers, judges, law students, and other legal professionals in and around Tarrant County that advances jurisprudence, facilitates the administration of justice, elevates standards of professional conduct, supports professional development, and promotes respect for the legal profession. It also supports the community by promoting free legal education, as well as various community services initiatives.

Haynes Boone is an international corporate law firm with 19 offices spanning Texas, New York, California, Charlotte, Chicago, Denver, Virginia, Washington, D.C., London, Mexico City and Shanghai, providing a full spectrum of legal services in energy, technology, financial services and private equity. With about 650 lawyers, Haynes Boone is ranked among the largest U.S.-based firms by The National Law Journal, The American Lawyer and The Lawyer. It was recognized in the BTI Consulting Group's 2022 "A-Team" report, which identifies the law firms that in-house counsel commend for providing superior client service.
