PRACTICES Insurance Recovery, Litigation

Haynes Boone Partner David Taubenfeld is the Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program's (DVAP's) October 2020 Volunteer of the Month. Taubenfeld, who serves as co-chair of the firm's Pro Bono and Public Service Committee, is profiled on DVAP's website about his pro bono experience.

Here is an excerpt:

How did you first get involved with pro bono?

When I first graduated from Law School in 1985, I took a post-appeal death row inmate case and I volunteered as a mediator for a juvenile offender mediation program here in Dallas County. Also, I participated in veterans' clinics and other pro bono activities. It was just something I always knew I was going to do.

What types of cases have you accepted?

All types. Death row habeas cases. Landlord-tenant disputes. Consumer disputes. Juvenile mediations. Asylum cases.

What impact has pro bono service had on your career?

It's made it more enjoyable and satisfying. There is nothing more satisfying than a pro bono success.

DVAP is an organization dedicated to increasing and enhancing pro bono legal services to low-income people in Dallas through the recruitment, training, and support of volunteer attorneys.

Taubenfeld represents policyholders in every kind of dispute they may have with their insurers. He finds coverage where others may not look, and he attempts to secure coverage for his clients through negotiation and diplomacy before litigation becomes necessary. When litigation becomes necessary, he litigates aggressively, always with the goal of securing coverage for his clients quickly and economically. He has secured millions of dollars in coverage for his clients through negotiation and litigation.
