

Haynes and Boone Lawyer Selected for Austrian Leadership Program

October 13, 2016 Craig Unterberg

PRACTICES Margin Lending and Structured Equity, Finance

Haynes Boone Partner Craig Unterberg, chair of the firm's Finance Section, recently participated in an Austrian Consulate's invitation-only leadership program designed for "the best young leaders in the U.S."

Unterberg joined other international decision-makers in Austria to meet, interact and exchange views with Foreign Minister Sebastian Kurz and other leading representatives from politics, public life and some of Austria's foremost businesses.

The program, known as the Austrian Leadership Programs (ALPs), included a visit to Vienna-based international organizations, such as important UN agencies and the Organization of Security and Co-Operation in Europe (OSCE).

Among the activities designed for Unterberg and the other participants was a trip to Tyrol and tour of a high-tech incubator hub, as well as talks on the Austrian economy, export capabilities and start-up companies.

As a leading authority on the U.S. margin regulations, Unterberg provides extensive regulatory advice on margin lending issues to a multitude of financial institutions and hedge funds. He has worked on an industry-leading number of single stock and portfolio loan transactions to hedge funds, investment companies, and private equity groups making him a market leader in handling complex onshore and offshore margin facilities.
